How do I choose vendors for my event?

With 40 plus years of wedding experience, V. Sattui has compiled a list of the Wine Country's best wedding professionals including officiants, photographers, musicians, florists, etc. Your wedding liaison will be happy to answer questions you may have in choosing vendors from our list. If you'd prefer to bring your own favorite vendor, please consult with one of our wedding liaisons. The only required vendor from our vendor list will be your partial planner wedding coordinator.

Who will be my caterer?

V. Sattui Winery is proud to offer our very own Michelin Star chef from the Lake Como Region of Italy, Stefano Masanti. Chef Masanti has created fabulous menu offerings from which you can customize to create a wine country dinner that suits your event. Your wedding liaison will arrange for a menu tasting for the wedding couple after securing your date with V. Sattui.

Full menu pricing starts at $175 per person.

Additional Questions

How many guests may I invite?

Our venue has a maximum capacity of 200 people. We can accommodate up to 170 people with a dancefloor or 200 people without.

Our authentic Barrel Room is available and can serve as a back up if weather prevents use of an outdoor location, saving you the significant cost and hassle of procuring a tent.

The Barrel Room floor is perfect for dancing, so there is no need for the added expense of a dance floor rental.

What if I have to cancel my event?

Because weddings are generally booked significantly in advance, deposits are non-refundable. However, if we are able to rebook your date after cancellation, we will happily refund your deposit, less a 20% administrative fee.

How do I choose wines for my wedding?

We are proud to offer over 70 varietals of incomparable wines crafted by our award-winning winemaker. Your wedding liaison will arrange your complimentary wine tasting to choose which wines will best match your event. We can also help arrange for service of beer kegs, if you prefer.
